ERT Support

TAGA has been redirected to perform air sampling at a new ER in the Houston area. TAGA will stop their current run and start a new run. I will inform y'all of the new site ID to associate the new TAGA run.

Thanks

RMP REPORT

TAGA is en route to the site. Please be advised that they only have standards for the BTEX Compounds. If you guys come up with any particular chemical specific information please forward the list to this group.
